TO RATION MILK SUPPLY;
TO ESTABLISH NEW-TYPE SCHOOL

LISTS RATION CATEGORIES -- Sofia Zemedelsko Zname, 23 Jul 50

The Ministries of Public Health and Internal Trade have directed the Trade and Food Supply Departments of okoliya and municipal people's soviets to establish the rates of daily milk distribution according to the following classifications:

Babies up to one year of age, children 1-5 years of age, and expectant mothers after the sixth month of pregnancy;

Child nurseries, hospitals, sanatoriums, maternity clinics, other medical establishments, and patients with medical certificates;

Workers in production enterprises using chemicals;

Child centers, day nurseries, children 5-7 years old, workers vacationing in organized vacation centers, and children 7-14 years of age.

The milk quotas for each category will be established by the local services of Trade and Food Supply in accordance with the milk supplies on hand.

TO SET UP SCHOOLS ON SOVIET PATTERN -- Sofia Izgrev, 14 Jul 50

The Ministry of Education announces that a new type of school based on the system prevailing in the USSR will be established this year throughout the country. The schools will offer an 11-year general educational course, and are to be conducted under a single administration and supervision. Schools of the new system were already introduced last year in Sofia, but will now be expanded throughout the country.

According to the ministry, three types of schools will be gradually established in the future; elementary, primary, and secondary.

The new school system will be further discussed and developed by the local okrug and okoliya committees.
